

Neighborhood Bingo

Every neighborhood is special! Make your own Neighborhood Bingo game and fill the squares with the people, places, things, and experiences in your neighborhood that are special to you.

Materials

Paper
Markers, colored pencils, or crayons

Instructions

1. Make a list of what you expect to find and observe in your neighborhood.
2. Draw one, shared family bingo card or create one bingo card for each family member.
3. Decide how many boxes you want your bingo game to have. Fold the paper into squares or use a straight edge to outline the boxes.
4. Write each neighborhood observation in each bingo box.
5. Go for a walk with the bingo card and check off each thing or experience on your bingo card!
6. When you have checked off a row, diagonal, or column of boxes say, "BINGO!"
